Day #5 - Friday, June 7th

Breakfast in the hotel.

After breakfast we continue our tour of the "Operation Overlord" area, taking us into the American theatre of operations. Driving west our first stop of the day will be at Utah Beach where the 4th Infantry Division, under the command of General Roosevelt landed. After walking on the beach, we depart for La Fiere, to cover the heroic actions of the 325th Glider Infantry Regiment, 82nd Airborne Division who fought to defend and keep the Merderet Bridge open for 3 bloody days of hard fighting. It was here that the Medal of Honor was awarded to Pvt, Charles de Glopper who was killed in action. This is the area where the west flank of the landing beaches had to be secured early in the morning of June 6, 1944.

Our next stop will be in Ste. Mere Eglise. Here we will visit the Airborne Museum dedicated to the 101st Division "Screaming Eagles" and the 82nd Division "All American" We will also visit the church to view the beautiful stained glass windows also dedicated to these 2 divisions. A parachute still dangles precariously from the steeple with an effigy of an 82nd airborne trooper, John Steele, who was entangled there after the drop.

On leaving St. Mere Eglise our tour will continue over to Point Du Hoc and the Ranger Monument. Point du Hoc has been left much as it was in June of 1944, a standing monument to the sacrifices and heroism of the 2nd Rangers. After our walk around Pointe du Hoc and visiting the German Bunkers we depart for Omaha Beach. Here we have time to reflect on the bloody slaughter of many young Americans that took place here. On visiting Omaha beach we will climb the bluffs to overlook the beachhead area and visit St .Laurent-sur-Mer American Military Cemetery.

Returning to our hotel by late afternoon / early evening.
Dinner in the hotel (B, D)

Day #6 - Saturday, June 8th

Breakfast in the hotel.

This morning we depart from the Normandy area we drive southeast to Reims.

En-route the tour will stop in the Compiègne Forest. In June 1940, just after his armies had smashed France, Hitler traveled to Compiègne. Here, in a forest clearing, on November 11, 1918, Marshal Ferdinand Foch, the French commander, had humbled the Kaiser's generals and accepted a humiliating German surrender, the armistice ending World War I. Foch held the fateful meeting in his railroad car, number 2419D.

On arrival in Reims, we will visit the Little Red Schoolhouse. This is the building and room where German surrender was signed on May 7, 1945, effectively ceasing all combat operations in Europe. Directly after this VE Day in Europe was declared.

Transferring from the Little Red Schoolhouse to our hotel and check in for 1 night.

Remainder of the evening free at leisure. (B, D)
Hotel in Reims / Tinquieux

Day #7 - Sunday, June 9th

Breakfast in the hotel

Departing Reims this morning, we continue west through the Champagne region to Verdun. A visit to some of the WW I battlefield sites is planned along with a visit to the Ossuary. Again it is here that we take time to reflect on the horror, destruction and the terrible loss of life that took place in the great war of 1914 -1918.

Mid-afternoon we travel into Luxembourg and visit the American Military Cemetery (Patton's Grave). After our visit to the Cemetery we continue north into Belgium and the Ardennes region to re-visit the area known in WWII history as the Ardennes offensive, (Battle of the Bulge) or "The Von Rundstedt offensive" and check into our hotel for the next 2 nights.

Dinner in hotel. (B, D)
Hotel in Bastogne / Aarlon Area

Day #8 - Monday, June 10th

Breakfast in the hotel.

A full day touring the Bulge area visiting many of the important combat areas.

La Gleize, Parker's crossroads, Stavelot, St. Vith, Trois Ponts, Bastogne, McCauliffe Square, McCauliffe Headquarters, Mardasson Memorial, and sites dedicated to covering the areas that were very heavily fought over and defended by the Famous "Band of Brothers" Easy company of the 101st Screaming Eagles. A visit to peace woods and the village of Foy.

Not forgetting Malmedy where the infamous massacre of GI's took place on the orders of S.S. Standartenfuhrer Joachim Peiper.

On December 17, 1944, near the hamlet of Baugnez on the height half-way between the town of Malmedy and Ligneuville in Belgium, the leading element of Waffen-SS Kampfgruppe Peiper, named after its leader SS-Standartenführer Joachim Peiper encountered Jeeps and trucks of the American 285th Field Artillery Observation Battalion (FAOB). The German tanks fired on the U.S. vehicles, which were quickly abandoned by their occupants. With no anti-tank weapons, the Americans surrendered. About 150 of the prisoners of war were disarmed and sent to stand in a field near the crossroads. Some 72-84 of the prisoners were machine gunned and killed, their bodies left on the field where they fell. An American patrol discovered the massacre that night.

Late afternoon we arrive back in our hotel.

Dinner in the hotel. (B, D)

Day #9 - Tuesday, June 11th

Breakfast in the hotel.

Departing the Bastogne area, our tour continues East through the Eifel mountains, following the advance of the US 1st Army through to Remagen. It is here that we make a short stop to visit the museum and the remains of the bridge that once spanned the River Rhine. This bridge was crucial to the Allied advance into the heart of Germany and had to be taken intact. Units of the 9th US Armored Division under LT. Karl. H. Timmermann reached this bridge and captured it intact on March 7th 1945. On March 17th 1945 the bridge collapsed killing 28 American soldiers.

On leaving Remagen we follow the course of the River Rhine south to Koblenz and Bopard where we board our boat for a 1 hour scenic cruise on the River Rhine to St. Goarhausen. From here we transfer to Frankfurt where we check into our hotel for 1 night.

Dinner in hotel. (B, D)

Hotel in central Frankfurt

Day #10 - Wednesday, June 12th

Breakfast in the hotel.

After breakfast, depart for Nuremberg. On arrival in Nuremberg we meet our local expert on the "National Socialist Party - Nazi Party" to start our tour with visits to the Zeppelin Field on the immense Nazi Party Rally Grounds. After touring the Luitpold Parade Ground and the superb Documentation Center, we will visit the Palace of Justice, site of the 1946 War Crimes Trials. Then on to our Munich/ Lengries hotel where we check into our hotel late afternoon for 3 nights.

Hotel in the Munich / Lengries Area

Day #11 - Thursday, June 13th

Breakfast in the hotel.

Morning city tour Munich. Finishing at the Marienplatz and 11:00am for the world famous Glockenspiel.

Munich is the capital of the German Federal State of Bavaria. It is also Germany's third largest city and one of Europe's most prosperous. The city has a population of about 1.3 million and the Munich metropolitan area is home to around 2.7 million people. The city is located on the River Isar north of the Bavarian Alps.

The city's motto was The World City with a heart for a long time and has been recently replaced by Munich likes you. The figure on Munich's coat-of-arms is a monk referred to as the Münchner Kindl, the child of Munich. Black and gold - the colors of the Holy Roman Empire - have been the city's official colors since the time of Louis IV, Holy Roman Emperor.

Free time for an independent lunch before our afternoon excursion to Dachau on the outskirts of Munich.

Dachau, once a pretty little painter and artist village on the outskirts of Munich, was transformed into Hitler's first concentration camp. Here we have time to reflect and remember those unfortunate souls who perished at the hands of the Nazi regime.

Late this afternoon we return to your hotel.

Dinner at the hotel. (B, D)

Day #12- Friday, June 14th

Breakfast in the hotel.

A full day excursion to Berchtesgaden is planned. Driving up to the Obersalzberg area we transfer to the public shuttle buses which run up to the Kehlstein Haus (Eagle's Nest).

The Eagle's Nest was a gift from the Nazi Party for Adolf Hitler's 50th birthday and used by him to entertain friends, high ranking Politicians and members of the Nazi party. After various bombing raids by the allied air forces the house was captured by the American 101st Airborne Division, the Screaming Eagles.

After WW II the building was repaired by the Bavarian Government. From here we have spectacular views overlooking the city of Salzburg in Austria and the Salzkammergut. After visiting the Eagle's Nest, we drive back to Obersalzberg and visit the remains of Hilter's main residence, "The Berghof". If time allows we also have the opportunity to visit the bunker system on the Obersalzberg (Entrance price not included - cost $4.00).

Later this afternoon / early evening we return to our hotel Munich / Lengries area
Dinner in hotel. (B, D)

Day #13 - Saturday, June 15th

Breakfast in the hotel

Group transfer to Munich's Franz Josef Strauss International Airport. Check in for the flight back to USA.
